Austin Hindu Temple Celebrates Annual Kartika Masam Sri Maha Rudam - 2018 Dec 1st (Saturday) and Dec 2nd Sunday

Karthika Masam is considered highly auspicious for worshipping Lord Shiva with great austerities. Devotees of Lord Shiva perform the Ekadasa Rudra Abhishekam for the whole month of Karthika Masam to please Lord Shiva. Any austerity performed by the sadhaka during the month of Karthika with the utmost devotion is granted the boon of washing away ones sins and afflictions, bringing Peace, Devotee Prosperity, Happiness and Mukthi.

Very rarely an event of this significance and magnitude can be witnessed and the opportunity for the people to actually participate in the worship is presented. It is said in the Shastrasthat anyone who participates with the utmost devotion in such an auspicious event is granted the boon of washing away ones sins and afflictions, bringing Peace, Prosperity, Happiness and Mukhthi.

Maha Rudra Yajna is one of the highest forms of community worship ,with the involvement of 11 Ritwiks reciting the Sri Rudra Prasna 11 times on 11 occasions , totaling 1,331 times followed by one tenth (133) recitations for the purpose of the homam
