

GARGI CENTER

Gargi Center & AHT invite you to Sanskriti 2020

An exciting and informative seminar to learn about Sanskrit-Sanskriti relationship and the representation of Hinduism in US School textbooks

- Date: Sunday, Feb 2, 2020
- Time: 2 pm to 5 pm
- Location: Austin Hindu Temple Community Hall

Note: Light Snacks will be served

Gargi Center is an Educational & Research organization for the study, support and promotion of Indic cultural and intellectual traditions

Please join us as members and support us!

Gargi Center is a 501 c(3) non-profit.

Schedule

Session 1: Introduction to Gargi Center (20 mins)

Speakers: Chary Tamirisa and Hari Madduri

Session 2: Sanskrit and Sanskriti (50 mins)

Importance of language, accurate use of words and terminologies for understanding the Hindu tradition. This talk helps to understand the commonalities and differences between Hindu and other religious views and how Hindu ideas are perceived in American society

Speaker: S. Subrahmanya of Gargi Center

Session 3: Representation of Hinduism in Textbooks (50 mins)

Discusses the anti Hindu bias in US School textbooks and the ongoing legal case in California. This talk helps parents understand how kids growing in the US are developing their perspective on Hinduism

Speaker : Arvind Kumar of CAPEEM

Remaining time will be used for networking and discussions