

Austin Hindu Temple & Community Center Celebrates Deva Snana Purnima Saturday, June 18, 2022 @4:30pm

Deva Snana Purnima, a ritual public bathing ceremony of Sri Jagannatha, is held annually on the full moon day of the month Jyestha of the Hindu calendar. After the ceremonial bath, the deities are decorated with a beautiful vesha (costume) known as Gajanana or Hati (elephant) Vesha. After Snana Purnima, the deities come down with fever from having spent so much time in the water. During this period, the deities rest in isolation (known as anabasara) in a place where visitors are not allowed. After about 15 days of rest, the anabasar ends as the deities recover. The deities feel ready to give blessings again with the special Netrotsav (eye-opening ceremony) or Naba Jaubana darshan (new youth spectacle). The next day, the deities get out of the temple in a chariot and make journey to the Gundicha temple to visit their maternal aunt for a week or so; this is the famous Ratha Yatra festival and the return journey home is the Bahuda Yatra.

Schedule:

04:30pm: mangaLa arpaNa (propitious offering)
dhADi pahanDi (procession of deities to snAna manDapa) jaLAdhibAsa/ Kalasha Puja (gathering of holy water. mandapa (carried on head by ladies))
mangaLa Arati and prAta upachAra puja (morning puja)
snAna besa lAgi (change of clothes for bath)
darpaNi snAna (bath with mirrors)
hAti besa lAgi (deities dressed as elephants)
anya upachAra puja (continuation of puja)
goti pahandi (procession of deities to aNasara mandapa)
bandApanA ladies offer lighted lamp on thAli (with teel, akshata, flowers etc.)
sayana besha (change of clothes for aNasara)
~8:30pm: pahaDa (deities retire)

Sponsorship: Click HERE.

Netra Utsava: Friday July 1st, 2022 @6:30pm

Ratha Yatra: Saturday July 2nd, 2022 @5:00pm

Mask is optional. Depending upon your risk level, use precautions when gathering, dining. Precautions include practicing social distancing, washing hands and wearing well-fitting mask.

<https://www.austinhindutemple.org/> | Info@austinhindutemple.org | 512.927.0000